

BONUS

SCIENCE FOR A BETTER FUTURE OF THE BALTIC SEA REGION

BONUS BALTICAPP, GO4BALTIC, MIRACLE and SOILS2SEA projects' end-conference:

Sustainable ecosystem governance of the Baltic Sea region under changing climate and land use

14–16 March 2018

Gdansk, Poland

The conference will introduce results of four BONUS projects ending in 2018. Novel approaches for managing nutrients, as well as governance approaches for the Baltic Sea region will be presented for discussion. Analyses of scenarios for future development will be based on advanced, well-integrated modelling, from field level to the entire Baltic Sea region. The results and their use will be reflected on relevant policies and their implementation in the Baltic Sea region.

All scientists and stakeholders with a vested interest in sustainable ecosystem-based governance in the Baltic Sea region are invited to join the conference.

MIRACLE

PROGRAMME

The conference programme will feature keynote presentations by leading international scientists, inspiring panel discussions as well as oral and poster presentations containing results of the BONUS BALTIAPP, GO4BALTIC, MIRACLE and SOILS2SEA projects.

DAY 1: Focus on policy, governance and environmental aspects

DAY 2 & 3: Focus on scientific results as related to the five conference topics

TOPICS

- 1 Policies to regulate impacts on the aquatic environment and the climate
- 2 Future scenarios: agricultural development, nutrient emissions and climate
- 3 Tools and catchment modelling – from local to Baltic scale
- 4 Governance and ecosystem services
- 5 The future Baltic Sea Region, what recommendations can we give?

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- » Lotta Anderson | Swedish Meteorological and Hydrological Institute, Sweden
- » Jim Smart | Griffith University, Australia
- » James Shortle | PennState College of Agricultural Science, USA
- » Jonathan Winsten | Winrock International, USA
- » Kasper Kok | Wageningen University, Netherland
- » Wim de Vries | Wageningen University, Netherland

SAVE THE DATE
14–16 March 2018

Further information and registration (opens in August 2017) available at bonus2018.eu.

Conference location

EUROPEAN SOLIDARITY CENTRE
Solidarity 1 Square
Gdansk, Poland

bonus2018.eu

conference@bonus2018.eu